When copies of the subject matter are no longer needed, they should be destroyed by a method that will prevent disclosure of the contents or reconstruction of the document.

<sup>1</sup> The term "classifiable" as used herein refers to subject matter that is not actually classified but is sufficiently sensitive, in the opinion of the sponsoring defense agency named herein, to have been classified under E.O. 12356 if the subject matter were known to be owned by or under control of the U.S. government.

This Order should not be construed in any way to mean that the U.S. Government has adopted or contemplates adoption of the invention disclosed in this application and it is not any indication of the value of such invention. Additionally, this Order is not authority in and of itself for classification of the subject matter of this patent application.

Any other patent application already or hereafter filed in the U.S. or any foreign country which contains any significant part of the subject matter of the above-identified patent application also falls within the scope of this Order.
